RIVALS IN LOVE FIGHT DUEL.

Pistol and Knife Indict Wounds From Which Both May Die.

Kokomo (Ind.) Dec. 23.—As the result of a quarrel over a young woman Frank Jones and Emory Cooper, first cousins, fought a duel in front of the girls' home Sunday night, twelve miles south of this place. Both drove to the residence to take her to church and meeting they jumped from the buggies and commenced shooting and carving with knives. Jones was literally scaped by Cooper, who used a knife, and Jones sent five bullets into Cooper's body. Cooper is fatally injured, and Jones may die. The duel lasted ten minutes, the young woman being a witness to the tragedy.

PARENT LION EATS HIS CUB.

Seven Young Born to Two Lionesses in "Zoo" in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee (Wis.) Dec. 23.—Seven lion cubs were born at the zoo here this morning. They were the offspring of two lionesses in cages side by side, and the births occurred at the same time. The birth of the first was unexpected, and Barnum, its father, attended it. He was taken from the cage with great difficulty. The others were born in safety, but the mother will let no one touch the mangled remains of her first born.

The wise wife will buy the present for her husband that she wants. Then she will have two.
